

Card Display Guidelines

- The maximum number of packages of cards is 4 at anytime. You may replace with a new package when one has been sold. Remember to update the Inventory sheet.
- The gallery does not store/hold cards. You will be called when a package sells and you may replace them, one package for one package on a first come, first served basis for available slots.
- When placing cards on card rack be respectful of other artist cards and not cover them with yours.
- A signed completed "Card Inventory and Commission Agreement" sheet must be prepared prior to displaying and checked in by another docent.
- ONLY watercolor/acrylic cards or prints may be on display. No photos.
- Cards may be displayed in a sealed or fold over package with a minimum price of $15.00 per package.
- You may have any number of cards in a package.
- There is NO COST to display cards for Sale.
- The Gallery will deduct 25% for the commission on all card sales.
